

WANTED: YOUR IDEAS

Please help me write the next edition of this book. Sometimes, after a book has been written, rewritten, edited, designed, typeset, and printed, it is declared complete. That is not true of this book. Falling Awake is still in development.

In fact, this book will be in transition for many years. I will change it frequently as I learn more about what works to assist people to live the life of their dreams. For this reason, I want to hear from you. Please write to me to let me know about your experience with this book.

Most of the interactions I have had with others have been in workshops, classrooms, and coaching sessions. In these situations, feedback is usually frequent and complete. The communication takes place in two directions.

Communicating through a book is different. After publishing their ideas, authors get little feedback or none at all. Such one-way communication does not give me a chance to learn.

I want your feedback. When you see ways to improve this book, write to me. I want the next edition to reflect your experiences as a result of doing this book.

If an idea in this book doesn't work for you, let me know. If a technique is particularly effective, let me know that, too. If you particularly like or don't like a photo or part of the design, please tell me. When you write to me, you are completing a communication loop. You are teaching me to be a more effective teacher.
